Rhea were elected delegates to the General Assembly, which meets in Louisville, Kentucky, in May.

The Whitesburg Times learns that at the Circuit Court at Jonesville, Lee county, Virginia, last week, John Willis was convicted of the murder of J. H. Reaser, and sentenced to be hanged. The date of the execution is July 25th, says the Bristol Courier.

We learn from Mr. Thomas, of the Newport Sentinel, that the work of building a new railroad bridge over Pigeon river, just above Newport, on the "Buncombe" road, was commenced Thursday, under the supervision of Mr. John Anderson. The old bridge gave way, and the trains stopped crossing several days since.

Among the different advertising agencies of the East with whom we have been doing business for the past years we would mention with pleasure the name of Dauchy & Co., 191 Fulton street, New York. Our dealings with that firm have always been agreeable, and we take pleasure in honoring their orders, when the rates are satisfactory.

Whitesburg Times: Moses B. Miller accidentally shot himself last week at Russellville, from the effect of which he died on last Saturday, and was buried by the Good Templars of that place and Whitesburg on Sunday, a large crowd being in attendance. Mr.
Miller was one of the oldest citizens of this section of country, and an old member of the M. E. Church, South.

Hon. R. L. Taylor, of the First Con-didate for appointment as cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point. Applicants are notified to appear before the Board of Examination at Jonesboro' on the 15th of

The Monroe Democrat learns that there is some little excitement over new discoveries of gold in the gold regions of Coco Creek, in that county.
Messrs. Curd, Dickson, Williams, Daugherty, and others, have been out there digging and got considerable gold, but we did not learn the exact amount. There has been a considerable amount of this precious metal taken from the Coco Creek country.

Uncle Bob McNelly, of the Cleveland Banner, says: The freeze of last Thursday night closed out the peach crop in this section. We don't think a live one has been left. Most of the apples, pears and plums were also killed. The thermometer was down to within 20 degrees of zero on Friday morning, and on Saturday morning it stood at 27°. With the exception of a very few rank spots, the wheat, we think, was not injured.

BUTCHERY AT NEWPORT.

Willis McMahon Frightfully Cut to Pieces by Dan. Potter.

A horrible tale of bloodshed and butchery occurred at Newport, Cocke county, last Tuesday night, the particulars of which are furnished us by a correspondent. It seems that Daniel E. Potter, a blacksmith in Newport, had started to his home that night, accompanied by his son, 9 years old, and a man by the name of Willis McMahon, a very peaceable, inoffensive man, towards whom no one held malice or ill-will. Potter, it seems, had a feeling of enmity towards McMahon's brother on account of something about the rent of a blacksmith shop.

As they were going along, Potter told his son to go on ahead, and when the boy had gotten the distance of ten or fifteen steps he looked back and saw the two men in a scuffle, and heard Mc-Mahon tell his father not to kill him.

Wednesday morning McMahon was found lying out on the ground in almost a dying condition, with some fearful gashes about his body; being cut to the ventral cavity in six or seven places, both on the back and in front, and there were, in all, fourteen gashes.

Potter came to town that morning, and was heard to make the inquiry who had done the deed. Suspicion soon rested on him, however, and he was arrested. Afterwards, a very sharp knife, identified by several persons as belonging to Potter, was found about fourty yards from where the deed was committed. It had on it blood and fragments of McMahon's clothing.
There was also blood found on Potter's clothing when he was arrested.

The above statements of the difficulty are fully corroborated by Potter's son, as well as McMahon. Potter is in jail awaiting the result of the wounds.
McMahon was still alive, strange to say, yesterday morning, as we were informed, but there seemed no possible chance of his recovery.

New Store.
We happened in at the new Family Grocery Store of W. W. Scarborough large and well assorted stock of Fancy and Family Groceries, neatly arranged.

Mr. Scarborough thoroughly understands the Family Grocery business, and we doubt not will give his customers perfect satisfaction. An examination of his stock and prices will convince any one that he means business.

Unpleasant Smell.
There is nothing more offensive than an unpleasant smell. To avoid this, use Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes, which are more delicate and durable than any other odors. His Florida Roses, for a Cologne Water, has a rich, fresh, flowery odor, and his Pet Rose and other odors, have only to be used to be admired.

ly stop the foolish habit of running simple, pure remedies, Hop Bitters, that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in

"SO REHEAT DU"

From the German of Solomon Frank. Translated by Miss Winkworth.

Rest of the weary! Thou Thyself art resting now, Where lowly in Thy sepulchre Thou liest; From out her deathly sleep My soul doth start to weep So sad a wonder, that Thou, Savior, diest!

Thy bitter anguish o'er,
To His dark tomb they bore Thee, Life of life—Thou, Lord of all creation!

The hollow rocky cave Must serve Thee for a grave, Who wast Thyself, the Rock of our salvation.

O, Prince of Life! I know That when I too lie low Thou wilt at last my soul from death awaken:
Wherefore I will not shrink From the graves awful brink; The heart that trusts in Thee shall never be shaken.

To me the darkness tomb Is but a narrow room, Where I may rest in peace, from sorrow free.

Thy death shall give me power To cry in that dark hour O death! O grave! where is your victory?

The grave can naught destroy;
Only the flesh can die.
And e'en the body triumphs o'er decay; Clothed by Thy wondrous might In robes of dazzling light, This flesh shall burst the grave at that Last Day.

My Jesus, day by day
Help me to watch and pray, Beside the tomb where in my heart thou'rt laid.

Thy better death shall be My constant memory,
My guide at last into death's awful shado.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

New Post Commandant.
Capt. James Stewart, formerly of the 18th Regular Infantry, but now on the retired list, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Atlanta to take charge of this post. He will take charge of the National Cemeteries of this city and Knoxville, and will control the disbursements, improvements, etc. The National Cemetery in this city is being handsomely improved by the Government, and the hallowed place has been rendered attractive.
The garrison here will leave on Saturday, and Capt. Stewart contemplates bringing his family here at once, and will make his headquarters at the bar-acks in the south-east portion of

Everything Goes Wrong In the bodily mechanism when the liver gets out of order. Constipation, dyspepsia, contamination of the blood, imperfect assimilation, are certain to ensue. But it is easy to prevent these consequences, and remove their cause, by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which stimulates the liver and regulates its action. The direct result is a disappearance of the pains beneath the ribs and through the shoulder blade, the nausea, headaches, yellowness of the skin, furred look of the tongue, and sour odor of the breath, which characterize liver complaint. Sound digestion and a regular habit of body are blessings also secured by the use of this celebrated restorative of health, which imparts a degree of vigor to the body which is its best guarantee of safety from malarial epidemics.
Nerve weakness and over-tension are relieved by it, and it improves both appetite and sleep.

A. O. U. W.
The Grand Lodge of Tennessee, Ancient Order of United Workmen, which was in session at Nashville, adjourned Wednesday until the third Tuesday in April, 1880.

The following are some of the most important proceedings of the third day, culled from the American's report:

A resolution to abolish the separate State jurisdiction, after considerable discussion, was laid on the table.

Among the new laws adopted, is that a brother is not subject to pay assessments until in possession of his certificate.

Also, that assessments falling due between meetings and not paid, a member does not stand suspended until the action of the lodge.

Also, when members are suspended or expelled, and the decision is reversed by the Grand Lodge, they shall pay all assessments, etc., for the time of their suspension.

Also, that applicants for membership shall not be under 21 nor over 50 years of age.

The following appropriations were made:

Incidental expenses of the Grand Master, $ 100 Grand Recorder, 150
Grand Receiver, 150
Printing, etc., 300
Salary of Grand Recorder, 1,250 2,250

The Committee also recommended that the sum of $127.37 be paid to the yellow fever committee at Memphis.
Adopted.
